Ike Sends Regards to Class Which Sent Him Art Poster

A letter from President Eisenhower's office, plus a picture of him, made a fitting climax Friday to summer school studies of Mrs. Harriet Wilson's first grade class at Arlington Elementary School, Torrance.

Wilton B. Persons, special assistant to the president, wrote the letter thanking the class for sending the president a poster giving a reason from each student on why "I love my country." When they mailed their letter to Ike, the class visited the post office. The poster was part of Fourth of July activities in summer school.

The letter said: "The president was very glad to get your letter and he was delighted with the poster you sent him. It is deeply gratifying to read such patriotic and appreciative statements from America's young citizens. Thank you for your thoughtfulness."

"I am enclosing a photograph which you might like to have for your classroom. It comes to you with the president's best wishes and his hope that your future years in school will be very successful ones."

Mrs. Wilson said her children were "thrilled to pieces."

No Hoodlums in Fight Game, Says Woman Promoter

Mrs. Cal Eaton, who described herself as the only licensed woman fight promoter has never encountered hoodlums or underworld characters in the 20 years she has been connected with the business.

That's what she told the Torrance Lions Club Tuesday when she and George Biddles, manager of ex-champ Hogan Kid Basse appeared on the program.

Mrs. Eaton told the Lions anecdotes about such boxing and wrestling figures as Gorgeous George, Art Aragon and Don Jordan.

Milt Pagel won a pair of ring-side tickets to the return match between Bassey and Davey Moore this month.

Jim Becker served as program chairman.

City Residents Own $16,950,000 in U.S. Savings Bonds

Torrance recent figures showing its share of the June and first half-year upsurge of Southern California building activity today brought forth the estimate that the growing capital debt incurred for this is supported by $16,950,000 in assets of United States Savings Bonds.

The estimate is based on the national average of $1000 on United States Savings Bonds being held by one-fourth of the population and assumes this average is shared by this community.

United States Treasury officials, Saving Bonds Division, stressed the importance of these "hidden assets" held by every American community, but often not taken into account in listing resources.
